Self employed graphic designer, specializing in news design

Since 2005 I am a self-employed graphic designer. Specializing mostly in news design and layout. I've designed or re-designed over 15 national, local and corporate newspapers and magazines. I also design various brochures, flyers, ads in periodicals. While working in daily newspapers for more than five years I've developed excellent skills to meet toughest possible deadlines, keeping the perfect quality of my work. You can evaluate my creativity and work quality visiting my portfolio at www.diz.lt/portfolio.

Designer at "Vilniaus žinios" and "Baltic Rundschau"

April 2004 - July 2005

The only designer at local weekly newspaper "Vilniaus žinios", part time designer at "Baltic Rundschau" (monthly newspaper about Baltic states, in German).

Vilnius University, International Business School

1999-2003

Bachelors degree

Page designer at "Respublikos leidinių grupė"

April 1999 - March 2004

Company profile - "Respublikos leidinių grupė" is a publisher of the second most popular daily "Respublika", and the most popular tabloid "Vakaro žinios"

My responsibility - create page layout usually in a very limited time. I was a page designer at "Respublika", afterwards at "Vakaro žinios". I've finished my career there as a senior designer of "Respublika".

Senior designer at "15min"

2005 July - 2006 May

Company profile - "15min" is the first free daily newspaper in Lithuania (circ. 100 000). Currently owned by "Schibsted".

My task was to create newspaper from scratch (regarding all graphical and technical issues). I've successfully created the design of newspaper, trained other designers, highly participated in efficient workflow system creation, automated routine layout tasks. I was responsible for overall newspaper design and quality. In a few months I've done my job - the newspaper was successfully running, so I left the full time job. I'm successfully cooperating with "15min" as independent consultant and graphic designer.
